Paves Way for Airport Expansion Commissioners Approve Kirtland CC Lease

by Joe Schrader
A complex process which spanned well over two years came closer to a conclusion this past Monday when the County Board of Commissioners approved a 25-year lease for Kirtland Community College to occupy airport property, thus paving the way for expansion of its aviation training facility. The College currently operates an air-frame and power plant mechanic training operation at the airport.

Monday's Board O.K., still contingent upon U.S. Army approval, will qualify the college for a federal grant from the Upper Great Lakes Commission, amounting to approximately $120,000, that figure to be boosted by an additional $33,000 from Kirtland itself.

Ray Homer, Kirtland President, and Robert Bovee, Board President, are confident that final approval will be announced by the end of July allowing the college to move ahead with its expansion plans. The facility will be approximately double its present size when completed, and will provide accommodations for some 10 aviation students. The program meets Federal Aviation Administration Standards.

A lease arrangement of 25 years is required to qualify for federal funding and an extension approval of some 7 or 8 years is currently necessary for the College to meet that requirement. Final approval, expected anytime, must come from the Secretary of the Army.

College officials point out that before a final decision is reached in a matter of this kind, action is required by the City, County, Grayling Township, the Army National Guard, the Corps of Engineers, the Pentagon, the College itself and the Michigan State Dept. of Education. It appears now though that all that red tape has been waded through and the project can be continued as soon as the final stamp of approval is given.

Again according to college officials, construction will begin almost immediately after the final O.K., with completion of the expansion project expected within six months. Martin Bohm heads up Kirtland's Aviation Program.

by Joe Schrader

Kathy Burkley was elected President, while Duane Sloan was named Vice-President, Bernadine Dosch, Secretary and Mickey Perez, Treasurer. ### Sheriff Reports Quiet Week

Sheriff's Dept. Deputies answered a total of 139 complaints last week, including six personal injury accidents and nine others involving property damage.

Sheriff Curt Haas termed it a "relatively quiet week." Animal Control Officer Doug Wallman was plenty busy, though, responding to 23 animal control complaints.

Sixteen larcenies were reported and the balance of the complaints ranged from a number of marine violations, six in all, to investigations conducted for complaints for non-armed robbery to noise complaints.

Three arrests were made on felony charges and two for misdemeanor incidents.

move to form the Corporation is an outgrowth of the Chamber of Commerce's Industrial Committee.

According to Ed Lowrie, Commissioner, Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce's Industrial Committee, public notices will be published so that other parties interested in such an endeavor may intervene. In the event the Corporation does, however, become a fact, a governing body would be appointed to operate the entity. The Articles of Incorporation submitted Monday was signed by local residents William Rankowski, Richard Schlehuber and Derek McFers. Incorporation is necessary for a group to avail itself of bonding and other avenues available to promote industrial, commercial and public growth. If the movement to form the Development Corporation is successful, Crawford would be the 69th of the State's 83 Counties to possess such an organization.

Another "almost 100%

sure" possibility, according to Chairman Lowrie, is a State appropriation which would establish a full-scale Forensics Laboratory here in Crawford County. The facility would employ over 20 people and would eliminate a 7 year effort by county officials to establish a Lab of this kind in our area. If O.K'd, the full-scale development program would extend over a 2 or 3 year period with a possible start-up date as early as this Fall.

RECEIVES LIFE-SAVING AWARD—Doug Failing of Grayling last week was awarded the Crawford County Sheriff's Dept. citation for a life-saving effort June 24th at Jones Lake. A nine-year old youth, inundated in the lake, called for help. Failing answered the call and swam into the lake and snatched the youth off the bottom of the lake, reportedly in about 10-feet of water. He brought the boy to shore, where a registered nurse, who happened on the scene, revived him with artificial respiration. Failing was also presented a life-saving award by ALERT, the AUSAble Energy Team. Shown here is Failing, (center), about to receive his award from (left to right) Dean Goss, Corporal with the Sheriff's Dept., Marine Division, Charles Ryan, Tom Latvisch, and Howard Vanderkoofer. ## Crawford-Roscommon Counties Resources To Be Evaluated!

Through local conservation districts, the Soil Conservation Service in 40 years has joined with more than 2 million people in a voluntary partnership to conserve soil and water.

Is the tax dollar for this conservation effort being spent wisely? Are run-off and erosion being adequately controlled? Are water resources being protected from sedimentation and chemical pollution? Is good habitat for fish and wildlife being preserved? Is the nation's food and fiber production being jeopardized through heedless management practices?

You can help appraise the soil and water resources of Crawford and Roscommon counties and develop a conservation program to protect and improve them.

Two meetings to record opinions, concerns, and suggestions on soil and water resource problems, needs and needs in Crawford and Roscommon counties will be held Thursday, July 20th at 3:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the basement of the County Building in Roscommon. Please attend the meeting most convenient for you!

What we learn at these meetings will help the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District and the U.S. Department of Agriculture direct conservation programs affecting soil and water resources. District Conservationist, Russ Long, explained, "By knowing what people consider important and what they want, we can determine needs and establish goals for local conservation programs and suggest changes in national programs."

The meetings will be sponsored by the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District and the U.S. Soil Conservation Service. This opportunity to help plan local and USDA programs is a result of the Resources Conservation Act signed by President Carter last November. Public participation and involvement is essential in solving the needs and goals for local and national soil and water conservation work.

The Resources Conservation Act calls for an appraisal of soil and water resources on private land, development of a five-year program to meet the needs identified and an annual evaluation of progress made. The first five-year program and the appraisal must be submitted to the Congress by December 31, 1979.

The Resources Conservation Act requires a determination of the quality and quantity of soil, water and related resources, such as forests; the ability of these resources to meet our current and future demands; changes in resource conditions because of past uses; the costs and benefits of alternative soil and water conservation practices; alternative irrigation techniques; and the effect of current and proposed conservation programs on our environment.

"At the July 20th meetings we will gather information, concerns and comments from resource-related groups, clubs and individuals in Crawford and Roscommon counties," Long said. "Our ideas will be combined with ideas from other Soil Conservation Districts in Michigan and will be sent to the U.S. Department of Agriculture to be included in the President's report to Congress on the status and needs of the nation's soil and water resources."

More information on the meetings and the Resources Conservation Act is available at the Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District office.

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN — THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1978

From Our Corner....

Just ramblings this week ... waiting for R and R ... The Buckeyes were bad enough ... but after the last two days this ole fella is starting to wonder if he is going to survive the onslaught of the Wolverine Guard ... and we still have to look forward to the Hoosiers ...

As always we have held off to the last minute to try and fill our corner, and today we have been trying to think of something to just even start an argument ... Such as, we don't think the flowers on Maple St. are as pretty as the ones on Michigan Ave. ... so instead we are contemplating on having a contest to see who can grow the largest cucumber, and largest sunflower ...

Rules for the contest will be ... they have to be grown in Crawford County, brought to the Avalanche for photo coverage ... and the prize will be one whole year's subscription to your favorite newspaper

Sunday we spent a couple hours at Camp Grayling as a quest for the ribbon cutting ceremonies of the new Non-Commissioned Officers Club and was to renew old acquaintances as well as meeting new Wolverine guardsmen ... the troops can well be proud of the club, and when finished the spot will be one of the finest overlooking Lake Margrethe, and we were told one of the ones spearheading the endeavor was one of Grayling's own citizens, Command Sgt. Major Claude Halstead (Ret.). It was a pleasant afternoon and we appreciate being invited.

Now it is Monday evening, and we have just returned from our favorite 10th hole at the country club attending the Grayling reception for the officers of the Wolverines ... where again we ran into friends we have made throughout the years ... our only problem is, time is running out, to put the old snowslide to bed.

We are sorry we did not know the agenda as to how this first, and should be annual, evening was going to be set up ... so in case one wonders why this evening was not carried in more depth in the Avalanche ... sorry about that. Maybe we can do better next year.

Right at this moment the only thing we can think about is this coming weekend when the bride and I take off for a little R and R. For those who may be inquisitive, that means rest and relaxation at Sugar Loaf Mountain to attend the Michigan Press Convention.

When we talked to Gen. John Johnston, Adjutant General, on Sunday, we mentioned we would not be able to attend the review and reception of his commander, but thought with rest at Sugar Loaf we could possibly attend his party on the Hill next Thursday.

We also learned last week with a little sadness and a bit of nostalgia that Gen. John Taylor, Assistant AG for the Army was going to hang up his boots come August 1. We spent a week with Gen. John and a group from downtown on a tour of military installations in Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado, which included NORAD, and following the trip we tried to evaluate him and came up with the same thought ... he is humble, but gains respect of all, and we are the first one in line. All we can add is congratulations, John, come back next year in your civies.

Have a nice weekend ... sooner or later summer should return ...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

PTL of Heaven
Rev. 19:1-6

We live in a generation which has learned to associate the letters PTL with "Praise The Lord." While there is some genuine praise of the Lord today, much of the current "Praise The Lord" language is just frivolous interpersonal exchanges given in a flippant, often sacrilegious manner, with little thought of, or worship toward God intended.

Revelation 19:1-6 is sometimes referred to as the New Testament Hallelujah Chorus. The entire tone of Revelation changes as the Great Tribulation ends in chapter 18 and we prepare for the return of our Lord Jesus Christ in chapter 19. Note the "great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia: Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God." Verse 1, "Alleluia" is the Greek word for the Hebrew word "Hallelujah" often found in the Old Testament. "Hallelujah" means praise ye Jehovah or praise ye the Lord.

The three areas of immediate praise are listed. Salvation speaks of deliverance. Glory and Honour speaks of God's moral glory in His judgment upon the world during the tribulation. Power speaks of God's might in bringing judgment upon the harlot world system.

We shall praise God for being faithful and righteous in His future judgment upon this sinful world system. Verse 2. We shall join the Heavenly chorus in singing praise to God for this judgment even as the smoke from God's judgment upon earth rises before our eyes. Verse 3. The Church as the 24 elders as well as the protectors and proclaimers of God's holiness, the 4 holy angelic beings shall join in this praise song. Verse 4.

Finally, a voice from God's throne shall call for a united voice of praise from all God's righteous creatures. Verse 5.

The response in verse 6 shall be beyond words to describe. Imagine the sound of Niagara Falls as you stand close enough to feel the vibration of her power, and at the same time imagine the sound of roaring thunder which is audible above the sound of the Falls. "And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth." Verse 6. Our greatest united praise of God shall be that day in which He completes judgment upon this earth and exercises His sovereign power by reigning and ruling all the universe. Now we still know our God as a loving, longsuffering God who is permitting the growth and spread of sin and evil upon the earth. Just as we praise Him now for His love, grace, mercy and longsuffering, we shall also praise Him then for His holiness, righteousness, truthfulness and justice. (adv.)

CAMP AU SABLE YOUTH GROUP ENTERTAINS—Local residents and area visitors were treated to an "extra-special" summer experience this past weekend when acrobatic and musical groups from Camp AuSable put on special performances in the city's downtown area.

The group, students at Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Mich., are enjoying two weeks of study and fun at the Camp, located near Grayling. The shows were sponsored by the Downtown Merchants Association. Two were held Friday afternoon and evening and a special, 1-hour performance was held Saturday night, when a throng of well over 200 folks attended the dazzling musical and acrobatic display.

It was a Hawaiian atmosphere throughout... interspersed with a talented acrobatic display... along with a delightful comedy routine, "Baseball's - Who's on First?"

The Saturday night crowd responded with energetic applause... a fitting tribute to a group who saw fit to provide Grayling with entertainment throughout the entire Holiday Week, and free of charge yet!

Pork barrel

Political double-talk
reflects inconsistency

Richard Milliman

Helping to confer upon politics and government the wonderland status they enjoy is the proclivity toward inconsistency which most politicians seem to possess as second nature.

For example:
In the wake of the overwhelming adoption of Proposition 13 in California politicians everywhere are scurrying to get in step with the march for tax cutting. Michigan politicians are no exception.

It appears that there may be not only one but maybe even two or three proposals about tax limitation on the Michigan statewide ballot in November. That's another thing about politicians: Moderation in the search for public favor is no virtue.

In response to Proposition 13's adoption in California, the long-running search for signatures to place a tax limitation plan on the Michigan ballot was speeded, so at least one tax limit proposal is assured of a ballot spot.

Then the Michigan Legislature got into gear, with its own version of a tax limitation proposal which it might aim at the voters in the fall. Also, a more stringent tax limitation proposal, more closely aligned with California's hay-maker — the so-called Tish proposal — picked up steam via the voter-signature route.

So be sure you get up early on election day and study the issues. Things may get a bit confusing.

In light of the scurry toward tax cutting, however, you might expect some money-saving methods to sneak into law via the legislative route. I'm afraid, though, that such an expectation is a bit naive.

Instead, the Legislature seems to be going the other way. First was a plan to shovel several million dollars in state support to local sheriff departments for road patrol — an example of state largesse new to the scene.

Then comes another proposal to distribute $13 million or so in special state aid to more than 80 cities and townships; originally it was designed to pay state dollars to cities which levy local income taxes, although I don't quite grasp the rationale for that connection. However, the target has been broadened — under prodding from legislators from areas which do not levy local income taxes — so that the latest idea is to hand out state funds to more than 80 local units. Again, exactly why is not too clear, unless you accept the reasoning that if a little pork barrel is good government, a bigger pork barrel is better government.

I suspect, however, that the broadened base of local gift-giving is designed to veil the essence of the idea, which appears to be to shovel even more state tax dollars into Detroit, which is scheduled to reap an $8 million benefit — far more than half — no matter which idea is adopted.

The theme of this essay, you'll recall, is consistency in politics, to wit:

On the one hand, the Michigan politicians are running to catch up to the voter demand for tax cutting, as dramatized in the California vote on Proposal 13.

But on the other hand, Michigan politicians dish out more and more state funds to sheriff departments, cities and townships, and who knows what-all.

It would be consistent to start the sail-trimming as soon as possible; but then, that's not popular.

Apparently the politicians involved in this double-talk refuse to acknowledge the basic fact that the only way to cut taxes is to cut services, too. There's no other way. You can shift taxes from one source to another, but to reduce taxes, there must be a reduction in government, too. You can't cut taxes with one hand, and give away more tax money with the other. Yet, it appears that's what's going on in Michigan right now.

As someone once said, consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds.

If that's true, then the Michigan political woods are full of folks with big minds. Inconsistency doesn't seem to bother them at all.

Johnston-Rasmussen Speak Vows

Debra L. Johnston and John J. Rasmussen II were united in marriage Saturday, May 20, 1978 at the Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church. The four o'clock ceremony was performed by Rev. George Spencer and Father Thomas Neis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Johnston and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rasmussen, all of Grayling.

For her marriage, the bride chose a gown of Selestia and imported French Venice lace with a high neckline, fitted Empire bodice and long, tapered sleeves. The floor length skirt featured a wattleau back which extended into a graceful chapel train. A matching lace Camellia head-dress secured her finger-tip lace edged veil of bridal mist illusion and she carried a bouquet of peach and white roses and carnations and baby's breath.

Blue, white and peach carnations decorated the church and Mrs. Jennie Annis was the organist. Soloist was Carol Monev. Selections presented were "You light up my life" and "The first time ever I saw your face".

Bernadine Bajor was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Joy Bobenmeyer, sister of the groom, Patty Tubbs, Mary Knapp and Donna Sajdak, Sara and Beth Bobenmeyer, twin nieces of the groom, were flower girls. The bride's attendants were floor length peach gowns and carried a long-stemmed peach carnation.

Serving the groom as best man was his brother, Joel Rasmussen. His other attendants were David Johnston, brother of the bride, Randy Sajdak, Pat Johnson, Michael Harwood, Jason Rasmussen (brother of the groom) and Jeff Harney. The male attendants all wore powder blue tuxedos.

A reception was held at the Officers Club at Camp Grayling. A buffet dinner was served followed by dancing to music by the D.J. Band, Mac Williams and Shelly Peterson served as host and hostess.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnston chose a floor length gown of mint green tulle. Mrs. Rasmussen wore a floor length gown of powder blue for the marriage of her son. Both mothers wore corsages of peach and white carnations and peach roses.

Out of town guests were from Nowata, Oklahoma; Alma, Ann Arbor, Mount Pleasant, Waterford, Traverse City, Cheboygan, Caydon, Harrison, Pinconning, West Branch, Midland, Mount Clemens, Lovells and Bay City.

The newlyweds are making their home in Grayling.

In Memory of my son, Steven Craig Kasper, ever close in mind and heart.

No further away than a picture. A smile or remembered phrase. My loved one lives in memory—So close in so many ways. For how often does a sunset bring nostalgic thoughts to mind of moments that my loved one shared in days now left behind? How often has a flower, or a crystal autumn sky brought golden recollections of happy days gone by? GENERAL TELEPHONE

When you become a teenager, if people notice that you enjoy younger children, you are asked to babysit. Suddenly you are faced with adult responsibilities. Can you do it? What about emergencies? Your parents may be even more unsure than you.

A Houghton Lake mother of teenagers came to the staff at the Parent-Child Center to suggest a program to meet this kind of need in the community. Mrs. Rebecca Bailey had given so much thought to this program that the Center staff asked her to coordinate the program. She had visualized.

During the week of June 19-23, a group of teenagers met at the center every afternoon for a series of workshops to upgrade their childcare skills. They participated in the following workshop taught by an expert in each area:

1. Monday — "Snacks - Good and Fun!" by Nancy Anderson of Cooperative Extension.

2. Tuesday — "Creative Play" by Linda Mueller, Kirtland Day Care Manager.

3. Wednesday — "Handling Emergencies" by Linda Dutcher, Roscommon Health Project.

4. Thursday — "Basic Infant Care" by Pat Watkins, Roscommon Public Health.

5. Friday — "Problem Behavior" by Neli Phillips, Parent-Child Center.

At the end of their 10 hours of instruction, the group had shared films and video-tapes, creative play with home-made noisemakers, peanut butter play dough and an obstacle course. They had practiced C.P.R. techniques with a "Recussi-baby" doll. They watched a nurse bathe, diaper, and dress a real, live 3 month old baby. After the final session, certificates were presented to 11 girls and 1 boy who participated in the Baby-Sitting Clinic.

Plans are being made for a repeat of the series as well as an advanced session. In addition, graduates of the Clinic will qualify for an in-service childcare training in future activities at the Parent-Child Center.

"Help ERA Help Jerry's Kids" was the theme for the May 7th Electronic Realty Associates march for life.

According to March For Life coordinator, William C. Cogswell, associate broker of the Keith Dressel Realty group, not only did ERA associates raise $602,000.00 nationally, but he has just been advised by the EPA Director of Public Affairs, Mr. Harvey Bergren, that Keith Dressel Realty with offices in Caydon, Boyne City, East Jordan, Bellaire and Grayling raised the largest amount of money in the state by reporting a grand total of $1,270,347 for MDA.

Muscular dystrophy is a grouping of 35 types of muscle destroying diseases, all of which progressively weaken or destroy muscles. Its chief victims are usually children.

In 1977, some $2,000.00 plus more expended for needed orthopedic equipment in Northern Michigan. For 1978, the ERA group will provide a wheelchair and a car-top lift.

We are happy and honored that ERA Keith Dressel Realty Associates were able to walk for those who couldn't, commented Mr. Cogswell.

Know Your

by Frank J. Kelley

(This is one of a series of public service articles explaining in general terms, a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult with a private attorney.)

With interest rates for home mortgages steadily rising, it is worth your while to check around and find the payment plan that saves you the most money. Several options may be available to you.

The most common method of financing a home is through a mortgage. In this case, a lending institution agrees to loan you the money to buy your home. In return, you pledge to repay the lender the cost of your home plus interest, within a designated period of time. You hold the title to the property even while you are still paying for it.

To get a mortgage, begin checking various sources including banks, savings and loan associations, mortgage companies and credit unions.

When you contact these lenders, find out what rate of interest they charge, how much of a down payment they require and what the closing costs will be.

Interest rates vary between lenders. Take the time to compare rates, for the difference of as little as one-fourth of one percent can save thousands of dollars over the life of a 30-year mortgage. Ask if the lender will lower the interest rate if you increase the size of the down payment.

Closing costs refer to expenses incurred to complete the loan. These include recording fees and legal documents, appraising the property, securing title insurance and ordering credit reports. Borrowers must be provided with a detailed list itemizing the closing costs as well as the interest being charged.

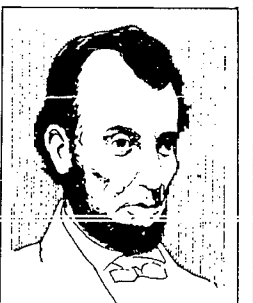

Lower and middle income families often qualify for Michigan Housing Authority loans. Interest rates on these loans are usually several percentage points less than other loans.

Another possibility is to purchase the property on a land contract. Down payments are less than for a mortgage and generally the interest rates are less. A land contract purchase does have one drawback. The contract provides that the title does not pass into your hands until you have completely paid for the property.

Taking over the existing mortgage on a house may initially require a large cash payment. But the interest rates on existing mortgages are lower and no closing costs are involved, so in the long run, this method can result in substantial savings.

Most lenders require a monthly payment in addition to the interest and the principal. This payment makes up the equity account and is used to pay taxes and sometimes insurance on the house.

Buying a home is an expensive venture. Compare credit plans and avoid paying higher credit rates than you have to.

There is no greatness that is a fit subject of redness by mob law.

At the Derek McEvers, their planters have red and white petunias. Way up in the 500 block, the Robert Holzman's planters are very nicely planted as well as his little backyard garden. The Carl McPhersons on the corner of Chestnut and Lake have many varieties of planters and flowers and up in the next block we find the Larry Ostrowskis with step planters. The Arthur Carlsons have some hanging baskets on their porch, their upstairs renters are fixing up some edging and planting flowers, the Hales next door have two swans planted with an arrangement and my mother, Mrs. Christenson, across the street, is particularly fond of her yellow petunias.

To Continue Efforts to Raise
Swamp Tax Rate for Counties

Although the increased 'swamp tax' rate set by the legislature Thursday is a satisfactory first step, two Republican representatives promised to continue their efforts until local governments receive an ad valorem rate for state-owned property.

State Representative Ralph Ostling (R-Roscommon) and Charles Varnum (R-Manistique) said the new swamp tax rate would mean a tremendous increase in money for local units of government in their districts.

If Governor Milliken signs the measure, it will raise from 58 cents-an-acre to $1.50-an-acre the money the state will pay to townships, counties & schools for land it has taken over following the owners' failure to pay property taxes on the land. Most of the 3.5 million acres of tax-reverted land is north of the Bay City-to-Muskegon line and became tax-reverted during the Depression.

Tax reverted acres in Ostling's district are Antrim, 32,643; Clare, 40,478; Crawford, 154,060; Grand Traverse, 55,810; Isabella, 1,717; Kalkaska, 126,901; Missaukee, 68,287; Osceola, 8,733; Roscommon, 173,764; and Charlevoix, 39,536.

Tax reverted acres in Varnum's district include Chippewa, 162,760; Luce, 260,651; Mackinac, 202,073; Schoolcraft, 246,661; and Emmet, 66,836.

"If nine million people want to own the land, then let the nine million people pay the taxes on that land," Ostling said, referring to the state's population who technically own the land.

"But I realize that you can only do so much at one time, so in a sense, I am happy to raise the rate from 58 cents to $1.50-an-acre."

"We'll be back, though," Varnum warned. "When the next legislature convenes we're going to push bills that call for $2.50-an-acre for tax-reverted land and keep pushing until we get the level up to the ad valorem rate."

The ad valorem rate is 50 percent of the land's true cash value.

Varnum, who was appointed to the six-member joint conference committee set up to work out a compromise between the $2-an-acre Senate-passed version of the bill and the $1.16 House-passed version, said he is satisfied with the new distribution of the swamp tax money.

"Counties will get 60 cents of the $1.50," Ostling explained. "Townships will receive 60 cents-an-acre and the 20 cents-an-acre freeze on the schools was lifted by the committee. The schools will now get 30

Road Commission Minutes

June 23, 1978

A regular meeting of the Crawford County Road Commissioners was held in their office in Grayling, Michigan. Chairman Millikin presiding. Present were: LeRoy Millikin, Ervin E. Richter, Grover C. Cason and Lorna Bernard. Absent: Ron Henke, Engineer.

The Minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved by the Board.

William Bakewell, appeared before the Board, asking the Board when Wakeley Bridge Road was to be paved. He also wanted to know if Land O' Living Road was private and if we would grade it. The Board informed Mr. Bakewell that the Land O' Living Road was a County Road as certified by the State map, and that we would have the road graded.

Cal Hawley, appeared before the Board to discuss the pay of one of the part time employees upon the Board's request. After much discussion, and research, it was determined that part time help were not covered by the union contract and that they would be paid for any overtime after 40 hours a week regular time.

Jo Ellen Bonnington was then called into the office and told that there had been an error in the past and that she would be paid according to the regulations set up by the State. The Road Commission also have a policy covering part time help.

Whereas, Part-time help are not covered by the Union Contract and therefore, they are not eligible to be paid overtime for any time less than a 40 hour work week or an 8 hour day. This is effective the Season of 1978. This directive was signed by all Board Members.

At this time, the Board broke for lunch, and after lunch went on a road inspection to Wakeley Bridge Road, at which time they returned to the office and convened the Meeting for the afternoon session.

The Board instructed Lorna Bernard to order the signs necessary to post the Bridges "One Lane" and to have the Engineer to check them for Load Limits. Also to have Norm Feldhauser check on the road at Old 27 and Old 76, to see that there are proper signs at this highway.

It was at this time that a Resolution was read by Chairman Millikin.

"Whereas: We were appointed by the County Commissioners to run the Road Commission in the best interest of the people of Crawford County; and as a result have asked a Private auditing firm, Pohson, Schuette and Hutchinson; to go over our books, and they have found shortages in the parts department in the amount of $21,767.00 and a $13,700.00 shortage in the Road Materials.

Therefore: Be it resolved that I, LeRoy Millikin, make a motion that we will inform the Treasury Dept. of the shortages, as we have checked closely and cannot find these shortages." The Resolution was seconded by Ervin Richter, all voted in favor. Motion carried.

Lorna Bernard reported to the Board, that a motor went out on one of the trucks, and the Board instructed her to have Cliff Howlerling check the truck out and find what the repairs would entail and report to the Board on June 30, 1978.

Vouchers No. 468-1 covering Payroll in the amount of $20,137.52 and Vouchers No. 468-2 through 314 in the amount $14,832.61 were presented for approval. Motion was made by Comm. Cason, supported by Comm. Richter to approve. All voted in favor, motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned by a motion by Comm. Richter, and seconded by Comm. Cason. All in favor. Meeting adjourned.

June 30, 1978

A regular meeting of the Crawford County Road Commission held in their office in Grayling, Michigan. Chairman Millikin presiding. Present were: Chairman Millikin, Ervin E. Richter, Grover Cason, Engineer Ron Henke and Secretary Lorna Bernard.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved by the Board with one addition.

The Board received a letter from the Department of the Treasury from the State of Michigan, regarding the audit of 1977. The Treasury department reviewed the audit and asked that we answer them in regards to the recommendations made in the report by Robson, Schuette and Hutchinson. They have given us 45 days to comply with those recommendations and answer them by letter.

The Board reviewed the applicants for the Part-time office help. The Board was told of the openings in the CET's shop and that girls were available through that program, and therefore this is the direction the Board decided to take.

The Board then discussed the need for another man in the shop to help the stock man. They went over all the applications and advised Lorna Bernard to call the three men picked for an interview with the Board, next Friday, July 7, 1978.

The project on M-76 and M-76 and M-76 Road at Dead Man's Curve was discussed on the easement forms. The Board at this time asked Lorna Bernard to call Douglas Dossion of Hess, Huss and Dossion, to come in and review the forms and to write up the proper easement forms. Mr. Dossion agreed to come in to the afternoon session.

At this time, the Board broke for lunch, to which, afterward, they went on inspection of Wakeley Bridge Road. Upon returning to the office, the meeting convened for the afternoon session. A discussion took place with Engineer Ron Henke, on what was needed to improve the road and driveways that had been changed during the construction of the road. The Board instructed Lorna Bernard to have Norm Feldhauser check the culverts and places that need guard rails, and instructed that they be ordered and brought up to County specifications.

Mr. Cason moved to have some guard rails put up on Wakeley Bridge Road to save the trees, subject to State approval. Seconded by Mr. Richter, all ayes, motion carried.

Lorna Bernard brought to the Board's attention that there have been several people asking to use the snow fence for different activities. The Board held a discussion on this, and also brought up the fact that earlier this year, they had decided not to loan the fence to anyone rather than a few, and that it has not always come back in the best of condition. The Board realizes that they have loaned the fence to the Booster Club for the fireworks for this year, but this was in error, because of a previous policy, and they want to correct this error. "It is the policy of the Board of the Crawford County Road Commission that the snow fence will not be loaned out to any organization and will be used exclusively by the Road Commission."

Bids were opened on the trucks that were advertised in the paper, and they were rejected in the best interest of Crawford County. They were as follows:

Truck No. 17—$176.00, by Don Welsier
Truck No. 22—$264.00, by Don Welsier
Truck No. 24—$326.00, by Don Welsier
Truck No. 25—$300.00, by Carl Henderson
Truck No. 17—$107.50, by Ross Argue
Truck No. 17—$100.00, by Ervin Richter.

Mr. Doug Dossion of Hess, Huss and Dossion, appeared before the Board to draw up a form for the right of way easement. He is going to draw up the form and have them ready for the Board by July 7, 1978.

There being no further business, a motion was made by Comm. Cason to adjourn, seconded by Millikin. All voted in favor. Meeting adjourned.

LeRoy Millikin, Chairman
Lorna Bernard, Secretary

Milltown Festival Mentioned In Motor News Magazine

A visit to Grayling to see the annual Milltown Festival of Arts and Crafts or beautiful Hartwick Pines State Park is suggested in the July Michigan Living - AAA Motor News magazine. Automobile Club of Michigan Traverse City area Manager Fred Doelker reports.

"The Arts and Crafts Festival is centered in downtown Grayling, although the entire Milltown Festival runs throughout the area from July 27-30," Auto Club's 1.2 million reader-members are told in an article entitled, "Michigan's Arts and Crafts Fairs."

Another article, "101 Off-Beat Things to Do in Michigan," cites Hartwick Pines State park as a top Michigan travel attraction. "Try and see if your family can hold hands around Michigan's official tree, the big 'Mr. Monarch' white pine, which is located there," the article suggests.

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey,

This is in response to a few inquiries which have recently come to the writer's attention regarding the 1978 Lake Margrethe Night of Lights Regatta.

There will not be a 1978 Regatta as far as the committee in charge of the 1976 and 1977 events is concerned.

Due to an insufficient number of participants and general lack of interest in last year's event, the committee decided to abandon the project.

Yours truly,

Home Insulation Standards Made Effective by FmHA

CRAWFORD COUNTY—New insulation standards for housing in rural areas financed by the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) will be put into effect, Allen E. Reinke, County Supervisor announced today.

Implementation of the standards, first scheduled for March 15, had been held up during federal court consideration of a suit by the National Association of Home Builders challenging the new code. After FmHA prepared additional environmental material and a further hearing on the case was held, U.S. District Judge George L. Hart, Jr., dissolved a preliminary injunction. While certain aspects of the lawsuit remain to be resolved, the new insulation standards can now be implemented.

The new thermal standards are designed to provide for heavier insulation and other measures to make FmHA-financed housing less costly to heat or cool, and to conserve energy. They will apply to newly-built homes and apartments financed by FmHA, and, insofar as is economically feasible, to existing housing purchased or repaired with FmHA loans. Better weatherizing thru more effective insulation, storm doors and windows and other techniques will help families to reduce high fuel and energy expenses that jeopardize their ability to afford adequate housing.

Details of the standards, which vary by climatic zones, are available from FmHA county office at 2170 S. Morey Rd., Rt. 3, Lake City, MI 49651.

Housing loans administered by FmHA, a U.S. Department of Agriculture agency, serve all rural areas including towns of up to 10,000, and designated towns of 10,000 to 20,000 that are not in Standard Metropolitan Statistical (SMSA) Areas and have a shortage of mortgage credit for families of low and moderate income. FmHA will finance approximately 75 homes and 2 apartments for Crawford County during fiscal year 1978.
